ACROSS THE RIVER

Buller's Legions Are Forced to Flee For the Third Time.

BOERS TOO MUCH FOR THEM.

British Unable to Hold the Position They Purchased So Dearly.

M'DONALD ALSO MEETS DEFEAT.

Attempted to Surround the Burghers and Is Now Falling Back on Modder River, With a Large Force Missing — Sortie From Camp Chieveley Put to Flight.

Boer Head Laager, Ladysmith, Thursday, Feb. 8.—The British who were in possession of the kopje of Molten's drift abandoned it after a bombardment by Boer canon in the morning and retired across the river to their former position. A desultory canonade is proceeding at the Tugela, but otherwise everything is quiet.

London, Feb. 9.—Up to the present time the war office has evidently heard nothing of General Buller's retreat as described in the despatch from the Boer Head Laager. When shown the Boer despatch the officials appeared utterly dumbfounded. Apparently they had not the least suspicion of the possibility of such an outcome of the operations. The news of another retirement is exceedingly bitter to the British, and though it comes from Boer sources there is little disposition to discredit it. The news spread rapidly and naturally disappointment was visible on all sides, although the long silence from the Upper Tugela had already aroused apprehension that General Buller might have found it impossible to go forward, in which case he would have no option but to re-cross the river.

A despatch dated Frere Camp Thursday, but probably written within the advanced lines on Wednesday, Feb. 7, and sent to Frere by runner, says: "The forces of the enemy are on both our flanks and continue to render our position extremely difficult to maintain."

Beyond the fact that General Buller devoted Wednesday to bringing more artillery and troops across the Tugela, nothing is known of his movements but that he badly needed reinforcements is evidenced from the foregoing from Frere. It is still more patent that it is impossible for him to advance until the artillery has been enabled to take up forward positions for the purpose of subduing the Boer guns on both flanks. Upon the length of time occupied in this operation depends the duration of General Buller's maintenance of the defensive.

It is not yet clear whether General McDonald's movement to the west of General Methuen's camp is anything more than a reconnaissance in force to protect a fresh advance from Belmont to Douglas, and the skirmishing still in progress is indecisive.

General Gatacre has strengthened his outposts north and west of Sterkstroom, which was threatened with attack, but has not massed his forces for an advance toward the Orange river. General French was bombarding the enemy's position vigorously Thursday from Coleskop, but his manœuvres have not yet been crowned with success. The Dutch in that quarter have been heavily reinforced, and are no longer acting on the defensive, but are taking up new positions between Colesburg and Philippstown, in the direction of De Aar, the chief British depot of military supplies.

Methuen's Men In Retreat. Koodoosberg Drift, Cape Colony, Feb. 9.—In order to completely surround the Boers, General Babington was, on Wednesday, despatched from the Modder river with a large force of cavalry and two batteries of horse artillery, but failed to reach here, although he started early enough in the day to enable him to get here early the following afternoon. General Methuen then ordered that the combined force should retire upon the Modder river, which movement is now proceeding. The British losses in the fighting on Wednesday were 50 men killed or wounded.

A Canadian Kick. Montreal, Feb. 9.—Hon. Joseph Israel Tarl, minister of public works, is strongly opposed to the sending of any more Canadians to South Africa. Referring to the proposal to send out 10,000 men, his paper, La Patrie, says: "The country has already spent nearly $2,000,000. to send two contingents to Africa. If we are to take part in all the conflicts of Europe, instead of developing our resources and improving our country, we will spend our money in armaments for wars in which Canada has no direct interest."

Kruger Receives Hay.

Washington, Feb. 9.—Secretary Hay received a cablegram from Adelbert Hay, United States consul at Pretoria, stating that he had received his exequatuer Wednesday, and that matters were very satisfactory. This effectively disposes of the apprehension that existed in some quarters that the Boer government might decline to receive Mr. Hay because of the failure of Colonel O'Beirne to receive recognition from our government as diplomatic representative to the Transvaal.

British Beaten Back.

Boer Laager, Ladysmith, Wednesday, Feb. 7.—An armored train made a sortie from Chieveley towards Colenso and landed 2,000 British troops on the right of the Boer position. The Boers immediately crossed the river and made an attack with rifles and artillery, forcing the withdrawal of both the train and the troops to Chieveley.

British Repulsed.

Pretoria, Monday, Feb. 5.—Colonel Plumer's force, Feb. 2, attacked the Boer position near Ramonata and after heavy fighting, including an endeavor to take the place by storm, the British were repulsed. Their loss is unknown. No Boers were injured.

Mutiny of Soudanese.

London, Feb. 9.—A special despatch from Cairo says the mutiny of Soudanese troops at Khartoum has assumed serious proportions and is causing great anxiety.

DIVISION OF SAMOA.

Natives Chagrined at the News and an Uprising Ensues.

San Francisco, Feb. 9.—Samoan advices received by the steamer Alameda are to the effect that the agreement between the three powers as to the division of the Samoan group, has but little real trouble, though the Malietoa and Mataafa factions were somewhat discontented, the Mataafans blaming the Malietoans for causing the trouble which brought about this result and vice versa. Reports have been received in Apia that Aaana and Savaii, the followers of Mataafa, chagrined at the news of the division of the islands resolved that the Malietoan adherents who had returned to their homes must be driven out of those districts. A large force of Mataafa men attacked the homes of the Malietoans, routed the residents out and set fire to the houses, and later drove the inhabitants to Sialemoa.

Steamer Ashore.

New York, Feb. 9.—The steamer Gate City, of the Ocean Steamship company's Savannah line, which went ashore in the fog at Great South Beach, lies inside of the outer bar with her bow bent. The vessel is in good condition and will probably float when lightened of her cargo of cotton. The cooks, waiters and bartenders were taken off the Gate City in the breeches buoy. The crew will not be permitted to land until the captain receives orders from the ship owners.

Free Coinage Bill.

Washington, Feb. 9.—Senator Jones (Ark.) introduced a free silver coinage substitute for the pending currency bill. The substitute provides that the mints of the United States shall be open to the coinage of silver and there shall be coined dollars of the weight of 41½ grains troy, of standard silver 9-10 fine, as provided by the act of Jan. 18, 1837, upon the same terms and subject to the limitations and provisions of law regulating the coinage and legal tender quality of gold.

Receipts Were Shy.

New York, Feb. 9.—William J. Bryan spoke at the Academy of Music, Brooklyn, under the auspices of Richard post, G. A. R. Congressman Mitchell May presided. The attendance was large. Winfield Scott Hancock post, G. A. R. is said to have lost nearly $200 on Mr. Bryan's lecture for the benefit of the post in this city Wednesday night. The receipts did not pay for the band and the rent of Carnegie hall.

British Steamer Ashore.

Cape Henry, Va., Feb. 9.—The weather bureau officer at Kitty Hawk, N. C., reports the British steamship Honiton ashore two and a half miles south of Paul Gammel's hills, N. C. The crew of the Kitty Hawk and Paul Gammel's Hills life saving stations have gone to her assistance.

THAT PEACE TREATY.

Governor Taylor Seems Unable to Make Up His Mind.

ANOTHER CONFERENCE IS CALLED.

Democratic Legislators May Be Arrested and Taken to London. Petitions Prepared Asking For Injunctions.

Cincinnati, O., Feb. 9.—Former Governor Bradley and other counsel from Kentucky have prepared their petitions, which are to be heard before Judge Taft in the United States Court of Appeals next Monday afternoon. Governor Bradley was emphatic in stating that the petitions in no wise affected either Governor Taylor or Lieutenant Governor Marshal, and therefore would not in any manner conflict with the pending conferences for an agreement.

The first petition is one in which the Republican state officers, other than governor and lieutenant governor, pray for an order restraining Democratic contestants from further interfering with the plaintiffs in the performance of their sworn duties. The petition recites how the returns from 119 county boards of elections showed that they were elected and how the state board of election in canvassing the returns confirmed their election.

The second petition is brought in behalf of citizens of Louisville and other parts of Kentucky against the state board of election commissioners to restrain said board from further interruption with the government of the commonwealth and it sets forth at great length the facts in connection with the election of last November, and the disturbances to business and the best interests of the commonwealth that have been brought about "through the efforts of contestants to reverse the result of said election."

Governor Bradley was called to Louisville later in the day. As he was engaged with attorneys here on work that was important, it is thought that there is some new development in Kentucky affairs.

Judge James Anderson Scott and Hon. Robert J. Breckinridge, counsel for the defendants, called on Judge Taft and requested a copy of the bill. Judge Taft stated that he had no copy and had not seen the bill. He referred both to ex-Governor Bradley and Mr. W. H. Mackoy. Judge Scott was one of Governor Goebel's attorneys and is now counsel for Mr. Breckinridge, who is the Democratic contestant for attorney general, and one of the defendants in the pending cases.

Republican Conference.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 9.—It is likely a general meeting of Republicans will be held here Saturday to consider the peace agreement as at Louisville. For the last week Governor Taylor has been receiving telegrams by the hundred from all parts of the state urging him to stand firm and not to surrender anything. The impression has become general among the Republicans who were not parties to the agreement that the compact was a complete surrender to the Democrats. The gentlemen who signed the agreement for the Republicans do not so consider it.

Two More Suspects.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 9.—Two men suspected of complicity in the murder of Governor Goebel were arrested in a boarding house. Their names are Silas Jones, of Whitley county, and Gottschalk, of Nelson county. The men are said to have slept in the executive building for a time and they will be kept in confinement until something more definite as to their whereabouts is known at the time of the assassination. Both strongly deny any knowledge of the murder.

Situation Unchanged.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 9.—There was no change in the situation. Governor Taylor was still as mysterious as ever and would not say whether or not he intended to take any action, nor would he make a statement of any kind. He spent the night at the home of a friend in Frankfort, having left the executive building for the first time since the Goebel assassination.

London, Ky., Feb. 9.—It is apparently certain that warrants for the arrest of enough absent Democratic members of both houses to constitute a quorum are about to be issued. Senator Cox said: "We will certainly have a quorum in the senate and a quorum in the house. Further than that I can't say."

BURIAL OF LAWTON.

With Solemn Pomp the Hero of Three Wars Is Laid to Rest.

Washington, Feb. 9.—Major General Henry W. Lawton was buried in the National cemetery at Arlington. The services at the grave were preceded by those at the Church of the Covenant in this city, where President H. M. Stryker, of Hamilton college, New York, delivered a funeral oration that has seldom been equaled in beauty of expression. Nearly all the available troops of the regular establishment remaining in this country were called out. Three thousand men, infantry, cavalry and artillery, followed the flag-draped caisson to the grave. Every department of the government paid its official tribute. Flags hung at half-mast. The president and his cabinet, representatives of the Supreme court, of the house and senate, and of the army and navy, all combined to fill the darkened church to its utmost.

Great crowds witnessed the funeral cortege. With a rumble of wheels and clash of trace-teams, field and siege batteries joined the procession and the hero of three wars moved on his last march to his final resting place on the Virginia hillside beyond the Potowmac.

Senator Clark's Case.

Washington, Feb. 9.—A. J. Steele was cross examined in the Clark case. He said he had participated in the fall campaign of 1898 with Mr. Clark's friends. He made a trip to Great Falls before the legislative election and also another after the election. On the first trip he had taken $700 which Mr. Davidson had given him, and on the second $300. Mr. Davidson had also given him money for expenses in other trips made throughout the state. Whenever he wanted money he went to either Mr. Davidson or Mr. Wellcome. During the sitting of the legislature he had received $1,000 from Davidson and $5,000 or $6,000 from Wellcome.

For Honolulu's Destitute.

Washington, Feb. 9.—At the cabinet session the principal subject of discussion was the plague situation in Hawaii. It was pointed out that the necessities of the case required the destruction of a large number of cabins in the poorer sections of the city of Honolulu and that in consequence many of the natives are homeless and in a destitute condition. It is understood to be the purpose of President McKinley to communicate the facts to congress with a request for authority to re-convene the old legislature, or to establish a committee with power to do whatever is needful at this time.

Plague Pesting Out.

San Francisco, Feb. 9.—The steamer Alameda arrived here from Australian ports via Samoa and Honolulu. The Alameda was ordered to quarantine, but Dr. Kinyoun, state quarantine officer, reported that up to Feb. 2 there had been no new cases of plague at Honolulu since Jan. 25. There were 7,400 Japanese and Chinese in quarantine at Honolulu and three detention camps have been established.

Murdered Hanged.

New York, Feb. 9.—James K. Brown, colored, was hanged in the Hudson county jail at Jersey City for the murder of Policeman Charles Gebhart in Hoboken. The police say Brown was a professional burglar. He killed Gebhart when the latter tried to arrest him on suspicion in July, 1898.

In the Senate.

Washington, Feb. 9.—When the senate convened Mr. Allison presented the credentials of his colleague, John H. Gear, re-elected senator from Iowa for a term of six years from March 4, 1901. The credentials were filed. The senate adjourned to attend the obsequies of General Lawton.

Fatal Railway Collision.

Escanaba, Mich., Feb. 9.—A Chicago and Northwestern passenger train was wrecked at Ford River switch, near here in a rear end collision with a freight. Nine persons were killed and nine injured. The accident occurred in a blinding snowstorm.

Coal Duty Free.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 9.—On the proposal of M. DeWitt, the minister of finance, the czar has consented to the importation of coal, exclusively for the use of the Russian railways, free of duty until Sept. 1, next.

Murder and Suicide.

Dixie, Wn., Feb. 9.—Benjamin Royce, a well-to-do farmer near here, was shot to death by his grandson, who afterwards cremated the body and committed suicide.

Georgetown, Ky., Feb. 9.—Governor Taylor was not represented when Judge Cantrill called the injunction proceedings here. On request of Judge Pryor for the plaintiffs the hearing was postponed until Tuesday next.

National Bank Bill.

Washington, Feb. 9.—Senator Nelson introduced an amendment to the currency bill permitting the organization of national banks in towns of 4,000 inhabitants and over with a capitalization of $25,000.

Conductor Crushed.

Alliance, O., Feb. 9.—Samuel Senn, of this city, a freight conductor, while engaged in switching a portion of his train at the Carbon Hill coal mines, was caught between the cars and crushed to death.

IN HOUSE AND SENATE

Brief Sessions Held In Both Wings of the Ohio Legislature.

A FLOOD OF BILLS THE FEATURE.

Majority of the Measures Are of a Local Nature, but Some Are of General Interest—Local Option Bill.

Columbus, O., Feb. 9.—At Friday's half-day session of the house of representatives an avalanche of bills flowed into the hopper. A large number are of interest, as follows:

Fixing salary of treasurer of Hamilton at $1,000; exempting the funds of Quakers from taxation; creating a board of review of three members for Cleveland; making railways responsible for injury to employees when injuries occur through negligence of fellow-employees; to teach Italian in public schools on petition of 75 freeholders; giving precedence over all other cases on docket to cases for damages for personal injury; raising school age from 7 to 14 to 7 to 15; repealing act establishing state meteorological bureau; to place electric wires in Cincinnati underground; enabling Toledo to issue $150,000 bonds to build boulevard for Ohio centennial.

A bill was introduced authorizing the state board of agriculture to issue $120,000 bonds to improve state fair grounds.

Mr. Arthur fathers a measure providing for the closing of saloons on Memorial day, fixing the penalty for violation at $100 and 10 days.

Bills passed: Providing that judges of insolvency court of Cleveland be paid salary of $2,500 out of county funds instead of by fees; to create a police pension fund in Youngstown and Akron out of one-half the insurance tax.

The normal school bill was defeated by a vote of 52 to 44.

At noon the house adjourned until next Tuesday afternoon.

Opponents of the Clark local option bill concluded not to try to have the vote by which it was passed in the house reconsidered Friday. This does not mean that no attempt will be made. The house rules provide that a vote may be reconsidered within three days of actual session. Reconsideration may therefore be made at the Tuesday evening session.

Senate Proceedings.

In the senate Mr. Marchant introduced a bill providing that Ohio shall impose the same restrictions and requirements upon fraternal insurance associations organized in other states and doing business in Ohio that are placed by those states upon such associations organized in Ohio.

Two bills were introduced amending the laws governing bills of exceptions. One provides that where such bill of exceptions is not prepared and filed within the required time, a stenographer's report of the trial proceedings shall be a bill of exceptions to all intents and purposes. The other bill provides that when a judge refuses to sign a bill of exceptions because not correct, he shall furnish the attorneys with a written statement as to what the error is, so that they may correct it.

Senator Chen introduced a bill making the stealing of a bicycle a special crime, with a penitentiary sentence as the penalty. The punishment is fixed at not more than three nor less than one year.

Mr. Ross' house bill providing that women shall receive the same compensation as men are paid when performing the same service, was made a special order for Wednesday next.

Bills passed: Providing for the listing of property that has been omitted from the tax duplicate by mistake without the addition of the usual penalty; providing for the relief of Jane Stefford.

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & McCARTHY,
Proprietors.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1900.

MR. TAYLOR seems to imagine he is the whole show.

THE first duty resting upon the Democratic party of Kentucky is to ferret out the assassins of Governor Goebel.

THE Democrats are in the majority in the Legislature and if there is to be any change in the election law they will make it, and not be dictated to, by the minority, in doing so.

MR. TAYLOR Thursday night ventured out of his den at Frankfort for the first time since Gov. Goebel was assassinated, and even then he had a squad of soldiers to accompany him. His guilty conscience has evidently made an arrant coward of him.

A DISPATCH from London, Ky., says Mr. Taylor has "authorized" the issuance of warrants for the Democratic members of the Legislature. Mr. Taylor will have a great big lot of trouble on his hands when his minions attempt to carry out such orders.

A TRIBUTE FROM CHICAGO.

At a recent meeting of the County Democracy of Chicago, Hon. Vincent H. Perkins, as Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, presented the following:

"Whereas, The County Democracy of Chicago has learned with profound regret of the untimely death of Governor William E. Goebel, of Kentucky; and,

Whereas, This organization had for him in his lifetime the highest admiration, knowing him to have been a manly man, a Democratic Democrat, a good citizen and a brave soldier in the battles for the rights of the masses; be it therefore Resolved, By the County Democracy, That we express our horror at the deep damnation of his taking off and our sympathy with his family in its hour of bereavement.

The resolutions were adopted unanimously and ordered engrossed for transmission to Mr. Goebel's family. Mr. Perkins and a number of others spoke in feeling terms, paying tributes to the deceased.

BAYONET RULE.

Taylor's Violation of the Law a Most Flagrant One.

[Pittsburg Dispatch, Rep.]

If he had accepted the verdict of the legislative court, with a protest against its unfairness, all the odium of the proceedings would have been on the other side. But because they, from his ex parte view, have committed a grievous wrong, he turns in and commits the more flagrant one of turning the Legislature out of its halls and suspending representative government by bayonets. They at least respect the forms of constitutional governments, while probably violating its spirit, as other politicians have done elsewhere. But he violated both the form and spirit of constitutional law by resorting to the stereotyped method of seizing arbitrary power and suppressing legislative independence by military strength.

This is much more destructive of republican government than the not unpreceded vice of deciding an election contest by political prejudice. It is pertinent to adapt the question of the contemporary already quoted and to ask, if a Governor may dragoon a Legislature on the pretext of an insurrection that has no existence save in his own acts? "What safeguard is left to free institutions?"

Abhorred of All Men.

[Georgetown, O., News-Democrat.]

Two weeks before the shooting of Goebel the following dispatch was sent out from Lexington, Ky., to the Republican papers of the country: "It is freely predicted here to-day by leading Republicans that the crisis cannot be delayed much longer, and that should shooting begin Goebel will be the first to fall. Some say Goebel should be shot and that Governor Taylor should pardon the murderer." That the killing was planned and premeditated is a question that admits of no discussion. That the conspirators chose the meanest and most un-American way of carrying their plans into execution should make them abhorred of all men. The methods of the Sicilian should have no devotees in this country.

GOEBEL'S ASSASSINATION.

Belief That Was Deliberately Planned.
The Man Who Fired the Shot
Only a Tool.

FRANKFORT, KY., February 7.—In some of the papers of the country a comparison has been made between the assassination of Lincoln and Garfield with that of Goebel, and there has been a disposition to say that in each case it was the act of a fanatic. Colonel T. C. Campbell talked entertainingly in reply to the question:

"Have you thought of the relationship between the three tragedies?"

"No, they are wholly unlike. Lincoln was murdered by a crack-brained actor. Garfield was shot in a public depot by an insane man, who was improperly hung for it. Goebel was shot by a riflemen from out the window of the Executive Building. The firing of the shot was the result of a plan of education and orders given by those who thought they were rendering the State a service by murdering a man who could not be controlled by the parties and factions heretofore controlling Kentucky."

There is a historical tragedy somewhat in line with the Goebel incident. Cassius, Brutus and a number of other Romans, believing the state was in danger by the ambition of Julius Caesar, entered into a conspiracy and killed Caesar in the Senate Chamber.

At this point the similarity between the two tragedies ceases.

The Roman conspirators having determined upon Caesar's death, faced him in the Senate and drove their daggers into his heart.

The Kentucky conspirators did not have the courage of the Roman prototypes and they caused Goebel's assassination to take place from concealment in the Executive Building.

Another difference exists between the Roman and the Kentucky assassination.

The Roman murderers were all known.

The Kentucky murderers will become known in time."

THEY SING HIS PRAISES.

Tributes to the Late Governor Goebel from Friend and Foe.

From his death chamber there came a message of peace and of respect for law which was worthy of a great man. Perhaps as the stricken leader lay there, with immortality dawning, there came a clearer vision than was ever given him before. Goebel is gone, in the prime of his manhood. Of strong intellect, iron will and dauntless courage the "deep damnation of his taking off" will lead men to remember him more kindly than if his stormy life had run its course; and even his political opponents will—

Be to his virtues very kind;
Be to his faults a little blind.

—Buffalo Courier, Dem. and anti-Goebel.

Such instances of heroism as he displayed from the time he was shot down until the final moment are rare, and he will go down in history as a man of superb nerve.—Charlotte Observer, Dem.

By virtue of sheer force of will, backed by an intellect of great strength, and with qualities of leadership that compelled a following, he quickly won for himself distinction among the great men of one of the proudest States of the Union.—Fort Worth Register, Dem.

To us he resembled Andrew Jackson in his earlier days. Whatever might be said against Mr. Goebel, none ever accused him of corruption. In all the twelve years of service in the Legislature of his State no stain was placed on his record. As a friend of the people he contended for their interests as against those of corporate wealth, and all the frightful calumny that was heaped upon him came from the venalized sources under the influence of that wealth.—Knoxville Sentinel, Dem.

Pork Packing.

[Cincinnati Price Current, February 8.]

The offerings of hogs are being well maintained. Total Western packing for the week 480,000 head, compared with 460,000 head the preceding week. For corresponding time last year the number was 470,000 head. From November 1 the total is 7,240,000 head, against 8,415,000 head a year ago—a decrease of 1,750,000 head.

The quality of hogs is good, reflecting the influence of favorable feeding operations and delayed marketing. Prices have ruled higher, and at the close average about 10 cents above the position a week ago, and $1.05 per 100 pounds higher than a year ago. It appears doubtful if the deficiency at the close of February will vary much from the present position—it may very likely be somewhat reduced, and possibly not be in excess of 1,000,000 head.

VOICE OF THE PRESS.

It Is Decidedly Opposed To Mr. Taylor.
Good of the State Demands His Retirement.

[Chicago Journal, Rep.]

Gov. Taylor should have taken Senator Lindsay's advice and refrained from making matters worse by trying to turn that assassination to his own advantage, declaring there was an insurrection when there was not, and when the only approach to one was the work of his own followers, usurping dictatorial powers, defying the processes of the courts, and using the military to prevent a co-ordinate branch of the government from discharging its legal functions. If the Legislature proposed to take Taylor's office away from him and give it to somebody else, it probably had legal authority to do so, and Taylor should have submitted.

For these reasons he ought to agree now to the arrangements made in yesterday's conference with representatives of the Goebel Democrats. He ought to permit Beckham to take his seat peacefully, and leave any mooted questions to the adjudication of the courts. Law, order and the public tranquility are paramount to the interests of any one man.

[Baltimore News, Ind. and anti-Goebel.]

Acting Gov. Taylor, of Kentucky, might as well come down now, while he can do it with some show of grace. The sentiment of the entire country has turned against him in the last week. His high-handed attempt to substitute bayonet rule in Frankfort is too much for sensible people, and Republicans unite now with Democrats in denouncing his course. Outside of Kentucky, the public is rapidly losing sight of the merits of the quarrel, and the current is setting rapidly toward the Democrats, who, whatever of evil they have already been guilty of, or even now contemplating, at least cloak it under the form of law. Taylor's position is absolutely untenable. Followed to its logical conclusion, it means subjection of civil to military law, or civil war. There is no occasion for Federal intervention in Kentucky, but there is occasion for work in that direction on the part of the leaders of the Republican party throughout the country. Pressure from that source should be brought to bear on the Republicans of Kentucky, and on Taylor especially, to halt in the course on which they are now bent. There is still time to check his mad career. He has done his party damage enough already. A strong intimation from his party to that effect may do much good.

[Hartford Courant, Rep.]

The appearance at Frankfort of a great party of armed Republicans was a most impolitic performance, and when the question of the State Government arose, and Gov. Taylor adjourned the Legislature into a county noted for its sharpshooters and its devotion to the Republican party, he showed a partisanship that would have been denounced as shameless if Goebel had been the man.

It's the high quality of Ballenger's jewelry, silverware and other goods that has established his reputation of handling the best in his line. It's money lost to buy any other kind. He will take pleasure in showing his goods.

BANK STOCK TAXABLE.

Important Decision on This Subject By the Judge of the Clark County Court.

WINCHESTER, Ky., Feb. 8.—An important case was tried this week before County Judge Evans.

A number of persons holding stock in National banks refused to list this stock with the Assessor, claiming it could not be taxed under existing laws. They also refused to give this information to the Board of Supervisors.

They were brought before the County Judge, who decided that bank stock should be taxed as other personalty.

The case will be taken to the Circuit Court and probably to the Court of Appeals.

In the Circuit Court Friday, James Hasson, Jr., was tried on a charge of assault and battery and convicted, the jury fixing his fine at $25.

IN SOCIAL CIRCLES.

A Dainty Dinner Given by Mrs. M. C. Russell Last Evening in Honor of Mrs. Wilson and Miss Scott.

Mrs. M. C. Russell entertained on Friday evening with a dainty dinner in honor of Mrs. Wilson and Miss Scott. Covers were laid for thirty and promptly at 6 o'clock the dining room doors were thrown open to the lovely bevy of women who composed the party. Upon the return to the drawing room dainty cards were distributed bearing the name of an author or one of his works, provoking many charming literary discussions as the ladies passed from table to table in the succeeding games of six-handed euchre.

THE suit of Rev. F. H. Kerfoot against the Shelby Sentinel has been dismissed settled. The defendant filed an answer covering the occurrence at the Shelbyville Christian Church, when Dr. Kerfoot made a speech in which Mr. Lewis, the editor, understood he reflected on the characters of Goebel, Beckham and McChord. The suit was settled by the payment of $350 to the attorneys of Dr. Kerfoot, each party to pay his own costs. In addition to an apology published in the Sentinel on Aug. 24, 1899, that paper last week published a retraction.

River News.

Rising here and at points above. The Queen City is to-night's packet for Pittsburg.

A big shipment of coal will be started from Pittsburg to-day.

The M. P. Wells passed down last evening for Cincinnati.

The rain here this week was much heavier than at headwaters.

C. Crane & Co.'s new towboat, Cole, has reached Portsmouth to receive her battery of boilers and machinery.

It has been definitely decided to send the Island Queen to Louisville every Thursday, beginning in April. She will make eight trips to the Falls City before Coney Island opens.

The boiler tubes for the steamer City of Pittsburg were received at Moore's foundry, Portsmouth, Thursday. There is now every possibility that the boat will be re-entered into trade by March 1.

Capt. Geo. Edgington will return the Speedwell to her owner at Huntington. He intends to run the M. P. Wells in the Portsmouth-Cincinnati trade until the Pearce has her new boilers placed in position.

THE GRAND JURY.

Improvements to the Clerk's Offices Recommended in the Final Report.

The grand jury returned the following indictments Friday:

Jos. D. Underwood; detaining a woman against her will.

Jos. A. McKibben; renting a house for unlawful purposes.

The jury also presented their final report and were discharged. The report is as follows:

We have diligently enquired into all infractions of the law to which our attention has been called or of which we had knowledge, and in all cases which in our judgment, the evidence brought before us justified us in doing so we have returned true bills.

We have visited the jail and other public buildings of the county. The jail we find in as good condition as it was reasonable to expect, taking into consideration the class of people, generally the very worst,—the Jailer has to contend with. The food furnished the inmates is sufficient and wholesome and all are kindly treated by the Jailer and his assistants. The frequent boisterous and sometimes indecent and obscene conversations held by parties in the jail with outside parties from the back window of the jail is very annoying to the citizens who live in the rear of the jail lot, and we recommend to the proper authorities that steps be taken immediately to abate the nuisance, and would suggest that residents whose families have been annoyed be consulted as to the proper steps to be taken.

The condition of the Clerks' offices is not near so good as we would like to see it, but the state of affairs cannot be blamed to the officers who occupy them. We consider the buildings furnished by the county as entirely inadequate for the safe and proper keeping of the public records, and the sooner this defect is remedied the better it will be for all concerned. Our recommendation is that good, substantial, roomy offices, with proper safeguards against the destruction of the valuable records by fire should be furnished by the county and then hold the officers strictly accountable for the manner in which the records are kept.

The books and records of the county should always be kept clean and arranged in a systematic manner. Deputy Sheriff Mackey has been faithful in the performance of his duties in attending to the business assigned to him by the jury, and all the officers of the court with whom we have had business have been obliging and prompt.

The report was ordered to be presented to the Fiscal Court.

For the Farmer.

D. W. Peed, of Paris, has bought of Junius Clay 50,000 pounds of tobacco at $5 to $8 cents per pound.

The wheat crop in Bourbon was never more promising. Harvesting machine men are all hustling for early orders, securing some at the advanced price.

H. C. Stone and Wash Bramel, of Mt. Gilead, have sold their crops of tobacco to Win McIlvaine at 7½c. and 7c. respectively, and Wood Bramel his crop to John McGraw at about 9c.

Thirty-seven Lewis County citizens have organized a sheep growers' association, the object of which is to prevent men from hunting with guns or dogs on the grounds of any of the members.

Market men say that there was never known in the history of this country such a scarcity of mules. The breeders have been actually bought out, and many large Western dealers have been compelled to send out buyers through the country to purchase from the farmers in order to keep up their stocks. Thus the farmers throughout the country are also short and will need to stock up for the coming spring.

Washington Opera House.

The Howard-Dorset Company, of which Mr. George B. Howard and Miss Flora Dorset are the bright particular stars, open three nights and Saturday matinee engagement next Thursday, February 15. Mr. Howard and Miss Dorset come highly recommended by press and public where they have appeared lately and a crowded house should greet the first appearance of these clever artists and their splendid company. As an opening bill the company will present the new five act comedy drama, "For Love's Sake."

A continuous show is given at each performance. The vaudeville part of each performance is exceptionally strong and includes Mr. Geo. B. Howard and Miss Dorset in their latest successful comedy sketches, songs, dances, funny ditties, etc. Clint and Bessie Robbins in their great sensational descriptive songs and dances and high class sketches; the character comedian Mr. Harry M. Hooper, and the sweet baritone Stokes Sullivan.

Popular prices will prevail during this engagement—10, 20, 30 cents. On opening night a lady will be admitted free if accompanied by a person with a paid 30 cents reserved seat. The advance sale opens Monday morning.

Millions Given Away.

Asthma, bronchitis, hoarseness and all diseases of the throat, chest and lungs are surely cured by it. Call on J. W. Wood & Son, druggists, and get a trial bottle free. Regular size 50 cents and $1. Forcible Facts.

One-sixth of the deaths from disease are due to consumption. Ninety-eight per cent. of all those who have used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for "weak lungs," have been perfectly and permanently cured. Cornelius McCawley, of Leechburg; Armstrong Co., Pa., had in all eighty hemorrhages. He says: "My doctor did all he could for me but could not stop the hemorrhages, and all gave me up to die with consumption." What doctors could not do "Golden Medical Discovery" did. It stopped the hemorrhages and cured their cause. This is one case out of thousands. Investigate the facts.
